Roadwork in Christiansted being performed by Marco Trucking. The slow pace in repairs has dampened Christiansted business activity while the contractor and the Waste Management Authority dispute over payments.

The roads of downtown Christiansted are in deplorable condition, and a dispute between the Waste Management Authority and contractor Marco St. Croix has delayed planned repairs.

Meanwhile, businesses in the town, during their most profitable season, are experiencing a downturn as patrons steer clear of the area. Full story here. Watch the video below.
