

The Virgin Islands Consortium

VIPD Captures Burglary Suspect in St. John; Set Bail at $25,000

25-year-old apprehended following surveillance footage review, arrested for 3rd-degree burglary in Chocolate Hole Sea Winds Villas Condominium case

Crime / Published On January 08, 2024 05:41 AM /

Staff Consortium January 08, 2024

Mugshot of Jordan Lynch. By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT.

ST. JOHN — In a swift response to a burglary report, the V.I. Police Department said it has successfully apprehended a suspect identified from surveillance footage.

According to the VIPD, on December 12 VIPD officers were dispatched to the Chocolate Hole Sea Winds Villas Condominium on St. John around 6:20 p.m. following a report from a resident about missing items in their home.

Upon arriving at the scene, officers managed to secure surveillance footage capturing the suspect in the act. The ongoing investigation led to the identification of the suspect as 25-year-old Jordan Lynch. On December 28, Lynch was spotted in the Main Street area of St. Thomas, leading to his arrest by the VIPD's Criminal Investigation Bureau.

Following his arrest, Lynch was taken into custody with his bail set at $25,000.00, pending an advice of rights hearing.

The VIPD continues to investigate the case and is calling for anyone with information related to this crime to come forward. People with knowledge of the incident can contact 911, reach out to Criminal Investigation Bureau Detective J. Carty at 340-693-8880 ext. 5207, or provide anonymous tips through Crime Stoppers V.I. here.