

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Inclement Weather Leads to Adjusted Vessel Schedules at USVI Seaports

St. Croix seaports adjust schedules due to inclement weather, St. Thomas and St. John remain unaffected

Community Center / Published On February 07, 2024 06:55 AM /

Staff Consortium February 07, 2024

Grandeur of the Seas docked in Frederiksted. By. V.I. CONSORTIUM

The V.I. Port Authority has issued an update regarding changes in vessel operations across the U.S. Virgin Islands due to inclement weather conditions. The announcement detailed itinerary changes and cancellations at the territory's seaports, with a focus on maintaining safety amidst heavy wave activity.

Seaports - St. Thomas/St. John

VIPA confirmed that there have been no cruise cancellations for St. Thomas/St. John. The cruise schedule for February 7 and 8 is as follows:

- Wednesday, February 7:
 - WICO – Disney Fantasy
 - WICO – Nieuw Amsterdam
 - WICO – Norwegian Encore
 - Crown Bay – Wonder of the Seas
 - Crown Bay – Evrima Yacht (an additional call due to an itinerary change)
- Thursday, February 8:
 - WICO – Zaandam
 - St. John – Evrima Yacht

Additionally, the regular passenger and car ferry operations between St. John and St. Thomas will continue as scheduled, with no service cancellations reported. All cargo vessels are also expected to arrive as planned.

Seaports - St. Croix

In St. Croix, the Adventure of the Seas cruise ship has canceled its call for Wednesday, February 7. Furthermore, all cargo vessel operations at the Wilfred “Bomba” Allick Port and Transshipment Center (the Containerport) have been suspended for the day.

Airports

Despite the weather conditions affecting seaports, the Cyril E. King Airport (STT) in St. Thomas and the Henry E. Rohlsen Airport (STX) in St. Croix will remain operational. VIPA advises travelers to directly contact their airlines for any inquiries about flight schedules.