

logo not found or type unknown

Watch: Boas are All Over St. Croix and Growing in Numbers

St. Croix is grappling with a Boa issue, as sightings of the formidable snake have been reported across the island

Community Center / Published On March 20, 2024 06:34 PM /

Staff Consortium March 20, 2024

Image not found or type unknown

Boa sighting on St. Croix near La Reine Chicken Shack on Wed. March 20, 2024. By. V.I. CONSORTIUM

A recent encounter of a Boa occurred on Wednesday in La Reine on St. Croix, where a Consortium journalist observed one in the road's center, close to the La Reine Chicken Shack. Legislation have been signed into law to help address the issue, but the reptiles have continued to grow in numbers. Watch the short video here.

A recent encounter of a Boa occurred on Wednesday in La Reine on St. Croix, where a Consortium journalist observed one in the road's center, close to the La Reine Chicken Shack.

Legislation have been signed into law to help address the issue, but the reptiles have continued to grow in numbers. Watch the short video here.

© Viconsortium 2024