Scheduled from April 17th to April 20th, 2024, the event will take place at the Carambola Beach Resort and aims to be a catalyst for growth and innovation within the local cannabis industry.

VICannaCulture™ offers more than seminars and expos; it's billed to be a transformative event dedicated to advancing naturopathic healthcare, wellness, and the use of plant medicine. This platform aspires to establish itself as the leading resource for cannabis education and networking in the Virgin Islands.

With a 15-year track record in healthcare leadership and a focus on regulatory compliance and patient wellness, Ms. Williams is spearheading the event. According to the release, her commitment to community wellbeing and the evolution of the cannabis sector in the Virgin Islands is a testament to her role as an organizer.

"I am thrilled to bring the VICannaCulture Networking and Business Development Event to my beloved St. Croix," Ms. Williams shared. She expressed her anticipation for the event, noting it as a unique convergence for professionals and enthusiasts to drive a forward-looking dialogue for cannabis in the Virgin Islands community.

The event is set to host an array of experts, including local Virgin Islanders and policy and regulatory professionals, with special presentations by figures such as Ms. Gia Morton, CEO of GVM Communications, Inc., a notable advocate in the cannabis sphere.

Participants can expect a comprehensive program featuring a Welcome Reception, a Seed to Sale Business Development Seminar, a policy-focused session titled "Policy with A Purpose," and the "Cocktails, Cannabis, and Conversations" evening event. The closing highlight will be the "Vibes Under the Moonlight" celebration with performances by Deri' and Friends.

Ms. Williams expressed gratitude to early sponsors, including Messer Gases for Life, The Social Beer Garden, 101.3 Roe FM, and Urban Foot Care, as well as My Lawd Variety Store.
