

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Man Wounded in Daylight Assault on St. Thomas

Victim found with severe neck injuries; police seek witnesses to Simmonds Alley attack

Crime / Published On April 12, 2024 06:08 AM /

Staff Consortium April 12, 2024

ST. THOMAS — A man was reportedly injured in a violent assault that occurred in Simmonds Alley, St. Thomas on Wednesday at around 12:15 p.m., the V.I. Police Department has announced.

According to police, the 911 Emergency Call Center received a distress call reporting a man bleeding from the neck near Jala Jala on Kronprindsens Gade.

Upon arrival, officers found the victim with a significant laceration to the left side of his neck. The injuries were said to have been sustained from an assault in Simmonds Alley.

The victim, however, declined to provide an official statement to the police at the scene. He was subsequently transported by ambulance to Schneider Regional Medical Center for treatment.

The VIPD's Criminal Investigation Bureau is actively investigating the incident. Authorities are urging anyone with information about the assault to come forward. Tips can be reported to the CIB at (340) 774-2211 or through 911. For those who wish to remain anonymous, information can also be shared via Crime Stoppers USVI by calling 1-800-222-8477, or online here.

© Viconsortium 2026