

The Virgin Islands Consortium

VIPD Issues Wanted Notice for Assault Suspect

Tina Phillips named as the primary suspect in a serious assault case, with Virgin Islands Police urging public vigilance

Community Center / Published On May 18, 2024 06:53 AM /

Staff Consortium May 18, 2024

Tina Phillips By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT

The V.I. Police Department has issued a wanted notice for Tina Phillips, a Florida-born female suspect, in connection with a first-degree assault case.

The police department has distributed her photograph and full description, urging the public to assist in her apprehension.

Details of the Suspect:

- Name: Tina Phillips
- Race: Black
- Sex: Female
- Last known address: Simmonds Alley

Tina Phillips is currently on the run, and members of the community are advised to be on the lookout. The VIPD has provided a contact number for its Criminal Investigation Bureau at 774-2211 Ext 5577 for anyone who might have information regarding her whereabouts. The public is reminded that harboring a fugitive is considered a criminal offense.

Authorities urge anyone who spots Tina Phillips or has any relevant information to immediately contact 911 or the specified extension of the VIPD's Criminal Investigation Bureau to ensure her swift capture and to aid in the ongoing investigation.

© Viconsortium 2026