

Early Voter Turnout Reaches 384 in U.S. Virgin Islands Ahead of 2024 Primary Election

With 384 voters already casting their ballots, early voting continues across the U.S. Virgin Islands until July 23, 2024, providing an efficient and secure process ahead of the Primary Election on August 3, 2024

Election / Published On July 19, 2024 07:00 AM /

Staff Consortium July 19, 2024

Image not found or type unknown

As early voting continues for the 2024 Primary Election, a total of 384 voters have already cast their ballots across the territory. To date, St. Thomas has seen 94 voters, St. Croix 290 voters, and St. John has not yet reported any participants.

Supervisor of Elections Caroline Fawkes assures the community that the voting process is efficient, transparent, and secure. Early voting, which began on July 16, will continue through the weekend and conclude on Tuesday, July 23 in all districts. Early voting has been ongoing in St. Croix and St. Thomas and will commence on St. John starting Saturday, July 20th.

Voters are encouraged to participate in early voting to avoid long lines on Primary Election Day, scheduled for August 3, 2024. Early voting hours are from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM daily on St. Thomas and St. Croix, and from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM on St. John from July 20 to July 23, 2024.

Early Voting Locations:

- St. Croix: Elections Office, Sunny Isles Shopping Center Unit 26
- St. Thomas: Elections Office, Lockhart Gardens (Upstairs Banco Popular)
- St. John: Elections Office, Market Place Suite II, 3rd Floor

Ms. Fawkes also reminded the public that absentee ballots are available for those who cannot participate in early voting or on Primary Election Day. Absentee ballot applications can be obtained at the Elections System offices and on the website www.vivote.gov.

For more information, contact the Office of the Supervisor of Elections at (340) 773-1021 or 774-3107.