The St. Croix Educational Complex's Class of 2004 is commemorating its 20th anniversary with a week-long series of reunion activities. The milestone event, planned by alumni Resha Phillip, J'nae Marie, Tionee Scotland, and Janella Torres John, features a variety of events aimed at reuniting classmates and celebrating their shared history.

The festivities began on Sunday, July 21st, with a church service at the City of Refuge Worship Center in Barren Spot. Activities continued on Monday, July 22nd, with a sunrise hike at 4:30 a.m., starting at Point Udall (Goat Hill). Tuesday, July 23rd, was an open day, giving attendees the opportunity to relax or explore the island at their leisure. On Wednesday, July 24th, there was a game night at Hangover Daiquiri, located at United Shopping Plaza. Participants were encouraged to wear their class t-shirts for the event.

Thursday, July 25th, the Class of '04' met for a meet and greet at Shupes in Christiansted, followed by a Playlist Thursday event at Levels, where former Complex High School principal Kurt Vialet made an appearance with the students.

On Friday, July 26th a Sip & Paint event will be held. For $60, participants will receive supplies, appetizers, and mimosas. The event will take place at the Box Event Space.

The week will culminate on Saturday, July 27th with a Family & Friends Day at the Beach, held at Dorsche Beach. Attendees are asked to bring a dish and their own beverages (BYOB).

The reunion promises to be a memorable occasion, celebrating the bonds formed two decades ago and the achievements of the Class of 2004. All classmates are encouraged to join in the celebrations and make new memories together.
