Delegate to Congress Stacey Plaskett and the V.I. Department of Human Services have announced initiatives to support Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients who have experienced food loss due to recent rolling blackouts and other misfortunes.

Ms. Plaskett on Friday revealed that the U.S. Department of Human Services will enable SNAP recipients in the Virgin Islands to receive replacement benefits if they lose food due to power outages lasting four or more hours. Plaskett emphasized the importance of timely response to these needs, particularly for the most vulnerable populations affected by recurring power outages.

“It is critically important for our leaders to respond timely to ensure that those desperately in need of these replacement benefits receive them as quickly as possible, particularly since the recurring power outages affect our most vulnerable populations on a different level,” Plaskett stated. She credited her team for initiating the program with VIDHS and commended Commissioner Averil George for taking steps to address the food loss experienced by SNAP recipients in the territory.

SNAP recipients who experience food loss must report it within ten days. Applications for replacement benefits can be picked up at any SNAP office or downloaded online. For assistance, SNAP recipients can contact the VIDHS Division of Family Assistance on St. Croix at 340-772-7100 (ext. 7159/7166) or 340-772-7120, and on St. Thomas/St. John at 340-774-0930 (ext. 4303) or 340-774-2399.

According to DHS, other misfortunes include fire, flood, and malfunctioning refrigeration units.

“We recognize the challenges our community faces during times of disaster,” said Ms. George. “The replacement of SNAP benefits ensures that no family will go without necessary nutrition due to circumstances beyond their control.”
