

logo not found or type unknown

"Same Difference & Friends 2" Set to Ignite Conversations on Love, Culture, and Community

Virgin Islanders are invited to a two-day event filled with lively panel discussions, Q&A sessions, and cultural experiences, hosted by Jah-malie Douglas

Entertainment / Published On September 05, 2024 08:53 AM /

Staff Consortium September 05, 2024

Image not found or type unknown

Images from Same Difference & Friends 1.

Jah-malie Douglas, the host of The Same Difference Podcast and A Different Day radio show, is gearing up for what is being promoted as an exciting two-day event, "Same Difference & Friends 2", scheduled for September 27th and 28th.

The event, aimed at sparking thought-provoking discussions and fostering community engagement, will take place at Lounge 55 on the first day and at Levels on the second.

The first night, held on September 27th from 7-9 PM, will feature a live podcast covering topics such as love, sex, dating, and relationships. Mr. Douglas, along with his panelists, will engage the audience in a dynamic Q&A segment, followed by a meet-and-greet. Attendees can look forward to fun and engaging conversations. Panelists for the evening include:

- Mr. Douglas, who goes by the moniker Jah, host of The Same Difference Podcast
- Marcus Norman, host of Gentlemanstyle Podcast
- Dan Moody
- Raven Scott
- DJ Yessai, host of Bush Tea in the Mawning

The second night, on September 28th from 7-9 PM, will feature a multigenerational panel discussing issues that affect Virgin Islanders in what is expected to resemble a town hall setting. This night promises insightful dialogue on topics ranging from education to governance and community challenges. The panelists for this event include:

- Positive Nelson
- Genevieve Whitaker, former Senator
- Diane Prosper, Independent Senatorial Candidate
- Garry Norman, 30-year retired educator
- Sayeeda Carter

Both events will be moderated by co-host Tanisea James. Attendees can also enjoy photo opportunities with moko jumbies and a fire show.

In addition to the panel discussions, the event will feature local vendors offering food, drinks, and various items for sale, including:

- Sahalie Nova Bey
- Blitzed Bitez
- A. Hiroko Eats
- Sweet & Spicy Sensations by Chef Tenisha
- 506 Scents & Co.

Tickets for the event are priced at $35 for a single day and $65 for both days, with a special 50% discount available from September 1st to 9th. Tickets can be purchased on Eventbrite here.

This event is expected to bring together Virgin Islanders from all walks of life for an exciting blend of entertainment, culture, and important conversations.