ST. CROIX — Following the success of their signature “Sunny Side Up Brunch & Mimosa Day Party,” Island Vybez Promotions is back with another exciting event: “GAG CITY: The Pink Sunday Edition”. The premium day party promises a vibrant celebration themed around shades of pink, inspired by the creative energy of Nicki Minaj’s Pink Friday album and tour.

The event, scheduled for Sunday, November 24, will take place from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Le Jolie in Sion Farm. This unique gathering invites patrons to don their best pink-themed outfits, embracing a “Shades of Pink” dress code. According to organizers, the theme offers attendees a chance to unleash their creativity and express themselves through bold and imaginative fashion.

“GAG CITY” will feature a premium DJ lineup to keep the crowd entertained. Music lovers can expect a mix of old-school R&B, Hip Hop, Dancehall, Soca, and Bouyon, ensuring there’s something for everyone. The DJ roster includes Selecta Jeaucair from St. Thomas, Supa Trakz Intl, Star General of Y2K Sounds, and Syndicate Sounds.

This 21+ event promises an unforgettable evening, blending music, fashion, and camaraderie in a lively atmosphere. While VIP tickets are already sold out, general admission tickets remain available for purchase online at gagcityvi.eventbrite.com. Early reservations are encouraged, as demand for this one-of-a-kind event is high.

Promoting Creativity Through Themes

Organizers have drawn inspiration for GAG CITY from the fan-generated concept of a "Pink World," reflecting the creativity surrounding Nicki Minaj’s Pink Friday. With the venue bathed in pink hues, attendees will experience a fully immersive environment that ties music, fashion, and ambiance together seamlessly.

Island Vybez Promotions encourages everyone to come ready to party in their finest shades of pink while enjoying free shots for the ladies, as advertised. This event follows the promoter's tradition of delivering standout entertainment experiences in St. Croix.
