The Women's Coalition of St. Croix will hold its 2024 Annual Meeting on Tuesday, December 3, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the WCSC Community Center located at 2145 Fisher Street, Christiansted. The event coincides with Giving Tuesday, a global day of generosity and philanthropy celebrated worldwide.

This year's meeting will feature a Silent Auction Fundraiser, showcasing a collection of mahogany pieces and artwork donated to the coalition throughout the year. "All proceeds from this auction will directly assist victim-survivors of crime impacted by violence who come to WCSC for emergency assistance and other services,” stated Ms. Clema S. Lewis, Executive Director of the WCSC.

The Annual Meeting provides an opportunity for members of the coalition, community partners, and the general public to learn about the services offered by WCSC. Guests will also have the chance to meet the staff, hear about past achievements, and gain insight into future initiatives planned by the organization.

Ms. Lewis emphasized the significance of the Silent Auction as an addition to this year’s event, which aims to maximize exposure and generate critical funding to support the coalition’s work.

For more information about the Annual Meeting, Silent Auction, or the WCSC’s advocacy, programs, and services for individuals impacted by violence, contact the Women’s Coalition of St. Croix at (340) 773-9272 or visit their website at wcstx.org.

This Giving Tuesday, the Women’s Coalition of St. Croix invites the community to come together in support of their vital mission to assist and empower those affected by violence.
