Governor Albert Bryan Jr. is inviting families across the territory to join in the festive cheer at this year's Governor's Children's Christmas Party. The celebration, aimed at children from newborns to 12 years old, will be held on St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, offering an evening of holiday fun and community spirit.

The parties will feature an array of activities, including photos with Santa Claus, exciting giveaways, festive music, delicious treats, and plenty of toys for the children, according to Gov't House. Governor Bryan emphasized that the events are designed to create special memories and bring the community together in the joyous spirit of the season.

The Christmas parties are scheduled as follows:

- St. Croix:
Date: Thursday, December 12
Time: 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM
Location: Government House

- St. Thomas:
Date: Saturday, December 14
Time: 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM
Location: Havensight Mall

- St. John:
Date: Monday, December 16
Time: 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM
Location: Franklin Powell Sr. Park

“We’re excited to be able to bring the community together for this joyful occasion. It’s all about creating lasting memories for our kids and celebrating the holiday spirit,” said the governor,

These parties provide an excellent opportunity for families and community members to gather, share in the festivities, and celebrate the season together.
