Two electrifying events bring non-stop entertainment to St. Croix this December: 'Small Island Fete' on December 21, 10 p.m. to 4 a.m., and 'Sunny Side Up' on December 29, 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. at The Palms at Pelican Cove.

Island Vybez Promotions is set to deliver back-to-back celebrations as part of St. Croix's 2024 festival season. The high-energy "Small Island Fete" kicks off the festivities on Saturday, December 21, from 10 p.m. to 4 a.m., followed by the vibrant "Sunny Side Up! Brunch & Mimosa Day Party" on Sunday, December 29, from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. Both events will be held at The Palms at Pelican Cove, offering a mix of top-tier entertainment, delicious food, and festive vibes.

"Small Island Fete" returns after a five-year hiatus with a stellar lineup featuring Deejay Blaze (St. Martin), DJ Avalanche (St. Thomas), and Bouyon artist Ridge (Dominica). The fete captures the spirit of island unity and promises a night of pulsating rhythms and high-energy performances. Get your tickets here.

The excitement continues with "Sunny Side Up! Brunch & Mimosa Day Party," an all-inclusive event with bottomless mimosas from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., brunch favorites while they last, and entertainment by Jr. Cruiza (NYC), DJ Kareem International (Orlando), DJ Avalanche (St. Thomas), Syndicate Sounds (St. Croix), and a live performance by Monéa (Tortola).
