Eliana L. Schuster-Brown, founder of Eliana B Artistry, has announced the Call to Artists for the 4th Annual Art Exhibit, Prolific. Set to take place February 2025, this year's theme, "For the Love of Art," invites Virgin Islands artists to showcase their passion, creativity, and dedication to their craft.

Since its inception, Prolific has become a key event in the Virgin Islands' cultural calendar. The exhibition offers a platform for both novice and professional artists to present their unique visions across various mediums, including painting, sculpture, photography, and mixed media. This year's theme encourages artists to explore their personal and emotional connections to their art, celebrating the love and commitment behind each creation.

Whether emerging or established, artists of all levels are invited to participate in Prolific. The exhibit welcomes submissions from various artistic disciplines, including:

- Painting (Oil, Acrylic, Watercolor)
- Sculpture and 3D Art
- Mixed Media and Collage
- Photography and Digital Art
- Printmaking
- Textile and Fiber Arts
- Drawing and Illustration

Applications must be submitted by January 29, 2025. Once registered, participants will receive detailed submission guidelines and exhibition requirements. Interested artists can visit www.elianabartistry.com to apply.

Exhibition Highlights

Prolific will feature two key events in February:

- Soft Opening and Artist Meet-and-Greet: February 12, 2025
- Grand Opening Reception: February 21, 2025

The exhibition will be open to the public, offering attendees an immersive experience that highlights the diversity and talent of the Virgin Islands' artistic community.

Eliana L. Schuster-Brown, founder and director of Prolific, is a passionate advocate for the arts and a prominent entrepreneur in the Virgin Islands' art scene.
