

Image not found or type unknown

UVI to Launch Cannabis Commerce Course with Updated Start Date

UVI announces a new start date for its five-week Cannabis Commerce course, offering in-depth instruction on the legal framework, business opportunities, and regulations of the emerging Virgin Islands cannabis industry.

Business / Published On February 09, 2025 08:18 PM /

Staff Consortium February 09, 2025

Image not found or type unknown

The University of the Virgin Islands has announced a new start date for its Cannabis Commerce course, a specialized program designed to educate participants on the emerging cannabis industry in the territory. The five-week course is set to begin on February 18 and will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 4:30 to 6:00 PM via Zoom, running through March 20, 2025.

The Cannabis Commerce course offers a comprehensive introduction to the evolving legal framework and business opportunities surrounding the Virgin Islands cannabis industry. The program, developed by UVI's Center for Excellence in Leadership and Learning (CELL), features expert facilitators who will provide insight into the rules and regulations established by the Virgin Islands Office of Cannabis Regulations.

The instructor-led sessions will delve into various aspects of the cannabis business landscape, equipping participants with the necessary knowledge to navigate this emerging sector effectively. The course fee is set at $420.00, and interested individuals can register by visiting the UVI CELL Registration page and searching for 'Cannabis Commerce' or by using the direct link tinyurl.com/cannabiscommerce.

For more details, individuals can contact UVI CELL via:

- Website: CELL.UVI.EDU
- Phone: 340-693-1100
- Email: CELL@UVI.EDU

Registration is now open, and early sign-ups are encouraged to secure a spot in this timely and informative program.

© Viconsortium 2025