ST. THOMAS — Officers from the V.I. Police Department Domestic Violence Unit arrested 51-year-old Raheim George on February 22 in connection with a reported domestic violence incident in Estate Smith Bay.

According to the VIPD, officers were notified of a simple assault case early Saturday morning. The victim, an adult female, reported that around 3:00 a.m. on February 22, George allegedly struck her in the face multiple times with his head, resulting in a black eye.

Later that afternoon, at approximately 3:00 p.m., officers apprehended George and transported him to the Criminal Investigation Bureau for questioning. He provided a statement but denied the allegations. Following the investigation, he was arrested and charged with simple assault - domestic violence and aggravated assault and battery - domestic violence.

After being booked, George was transferred to the Bureau of Corrections while awaiting his Advice of Rights Hearing on Monday. However, a docket search revealed no record of the proceeding in his case.

The Domestic Violence Unit continues its investigation into this case. Authorities urge anyone with information regarding this incident to contact the VIPD's Domestic Violence Unit at (340) 715-5535, the Office of the Police Chief, or emergency services by dialing 911.
