

logo not found or type unknown

Michelle Smith's Strong Relay Leg Propels Georgia to SEC 4x400m Title

Smith ran a 52.10-second split in the second leg of Georgia's 4x400m relay, helping secure the SEC title. The team's record-breaking 3:26.42 finish set a school and facility record, ranking as the fastest NCAA time this season and second fastest globally.

Sports / Published On March 03, 2025 05:51 AM /

Staff Consortium March 03, 2025

Image not found or type unknown

USVI Track and Field Star Michelle Smith.

Michelle Smith, a standout freshman at the University of Georgia, played a key role in securing victory for her team in the 4x400 meters relay at the SEC Championships held at Texas A&M University, according to a release issued late Sunday by the Virgin Islands Track & Field Federation.

Running the second leg of the relay, Smith clocked an impressive split of 52.10 seconds, contributing significantly to her team's historic achievement. Her strong performance, combined with those of Dejanae Oakley, Haley Tate, and Aaliyah Butler, led the University of Georgia to a record-breaking time of 3:26.42.

According to the release, the team's time not only secured the SEC Championship title but also set a new school record and a facility record. Their performance stands as the fastest time in the NCAA this season and ranks as the second fastest time in the world.

The Virgin Islands Track and Field Federation is encouraging all Virgin Islands athletes to register with the federation. Registration can be completed online through the official VITFF website under the Registration section.

For those who missed the thrilling race, a video of the 4x400m relay can be viewed at the following link: Watch Here.

© Viconsortium 2025