CHRISTIANSTED, ST. CROIX — A night of glam, music, and vibrant energy is on the horizon as “It’s A Vibe” presents Pink and Pretty, set for Saturday, April 5 at the Sydney Lee Event Center.

Themed around the colors of femininity and flair, attendees are encouraged to dress in shades of pink or white for an immersive night where fashion meets sound. Hosted by MC Bogle, the evening promises nonstop entertainment featuring a lineup of performers and DJs from across the region.

Headlining the event is Jamaican artist Moyann, known for her dynamic stage presence. Sharing the stage will be Monea,g the dynamic Virgin Islands artist hailing from Tortola, and the multi-talented Mayah V, also set to perform.

In addition to the featured artists, music for the night will be powered by an all-star roster of DJs including Kimodan, Star General, DJ Yessai, and Supatraks.

Doors will open at 9:00 p.m., and early arrival is encouraged. The first five ladies through the door will enjoy free entry, adding an extra incentive for early birds.

Early bird tickets are sold out, however general admission tickets are available for purchase at Urban Threadz, Strictly the Best, and Cache Lamour. Regular tickets are priced at $40.

For those interested in an upgraded experience, VIP packages are available, and further details can be obtained by contacting 340-277-1397.

The event is being presented by Starlight Promotions, the team behind a series of successful nightlife experiences in the territory.

Whether you're coming for the music, the fashion, or the full cultural experience, Pink and Pretty is shaping up to be one of the most stylish parties of the season.
