On Tuesday, Government House Communications Director Richard Motta announced that another tranche of tax refund checks would be mailed out to residents beginning this week.

“These refunds will reach residents who filed their tax returns on or before July 28, 2023,” Mr. Motta said, noting that 3,119 taxpayers would be receiving refunds in this round of payments.

“Our administration fully understands that many Virgin Islanders and many Virgin Islands families depend on these refunds as an important source of additional income, particularly in this climate of economic uncertainty and rising costs of consumer goods,” Mr. Motta noted.
