Jamaican dancehall heavyweight Spragga Benz is set to light up the island of St. Croix on May 31 with a high-energy Celebrity Birthday Bash, promising a night filled with music, culture, and legendary performances.

The event, which will take place at Legendz Lounge in Frederiksted, brings together a dynamic lineup of reggae and dancehall heavyweights, including Jahshii, Briggie Benz, Xyclone, Bittah Sosicka, and Pressure. With this all-star cast, the night is poised to be one of the biggest musical events of the season for fans across the Virgin Islands.

Spragga Benz, known for his signature voice and lyrical finesse, has been a defining figure in dancehall music for over three decades. His catalog includes hit singles like “Jack It Up,” “She Nuh Ready Yet,” and “Dolly House.” Beyond his solo work, Spragga has collaborated with renowned international artists such as Wyclef Jean, Nas, and Foxy Brown, earning him a global following and widespread respect across genres.

While the night will serve as a celebration of Spragga’s birthday and career, the bash also aims to highlight the vibrant next generation of Caribbean performers. Rising stars like Jahshii, whose breakout energy continues to electrify audiences, and established players like Pressure, known for his powerful, soulful anthems will take the stage to carry forward the spirit of reggae and dancehall.

For those planning to attend, tickets are already available online here. With anticipation building, organizers are urging fans to secure their entry early and be part of a night that celebrates not just a musical legend, but the enduring heartbeat of Caribbean sound.
