ST. THOMAS — For more than two decades, D-Black Security has been a familiar presence in St. Thomas, called on to provide protection at community events, guard construction sites, and watch over homes and businesses.

During an interview, the said it company provides both armed and unarmed guards, and over the years its work has ranged from securing private family gatherings to safeguarding commercial storefronts. Leaders at D-Black say the key has been tailoring each job to meet the specific concerns of their clients.

“People call us because they want peace of mind,” said the company. “Sometimes that means a discreet guard at the door of a wedding reception, other times it means monitoring a site overnight where valuable equipment is stored. Whatever the case, we take the responsibility seriously.”

D-Black Security says its staff is trained to be dependable, responsive, and discreet. While the company stresses its versatility, it emphasizes that its work is built around one priority: keeping people safe.

“Our priority is, and always will be, the safety of our clients,” said company founder David Petersen, adding that the last 20 years have shown the importance of being able to adapt to the changing needs of St. Thomas. The company can be reached at (340) 514-0790.
