Women In Business VI & Caribbean Inc. is set to deliver another empowering edition of the Live with Laura Show this Sunday, September 21, at 4:00 p.m. The program will air simultaneously on the VI Consortium platform and the Government Access Channel.

Hosted by Laura Forbes, the show continues its mission of highlighting trailblazing women who are shaping communities, breaking barriers, and leading with purpose. Forbes described the program as more than just entertainment. “Live with Laura isn’t just a talk show—it’s where real conversations light sparks of change, and where our community’s brightest voices shine!” she said.

This week’s broadcast will feature an all-star panel of women from across sectors:

- Dr. Vincentia Paul-Constantin — Founder and Executive Director of BeautifulDreamers.org, with operations in St. Croix, St. Thomas, and Atlanta.
- Aisha-Jamila Mussington — Director of Social and Community Programs at Frederiksted Health Care, Inc.
- Virginia Clairmont — Board Chair of Frederiksted Health Care.
- Jaielean Jagrup — U.S. Virgin Islands National Director of the Miss Universe Pageant and CEO of Miss USVI.

From healthcare to global pageantry, from community empowerment to inspiring dreams, these women exemplify leadership fueled by vision, heart, and determination. Organizers said the program seeks to shine a spotlight on their work while encouraging viewers to recognize the value of female leadership in shaping the future of the Virgin Islands and beyond.

The episode will air live on Sunday, September 21, at 4:00 p.m. AST on the VI Consortium and Government Access Channel.
