

Man Found Dead After Early-Morning Shooting in Contant, St. Thomas

Police are investigating a deadly shooting in Contant after the Shot Spotter Detection System alerted officers to gunfire around 12:15 a.m. Thursday. Responding units found an unresponsive man in the roadway with multiple gunshot wounds.

Crime / Published On November 06, 2025 06:16 PM /

Staff Consortium November 06, 2025

Image not found or type unknown

ST. CROIX — Police are investigating a fatal shooting that occurred just after midnight Thursday in Contant, where a man was found unresponsive in the roadway with multiple gunshot wounds.

According to the V.I. Police Department's Criminal Investigation Bureau, the incident occurred on November 6, 2025, at approximately 12:15 a.m. when the Shot Spotter Detection System alerted officers to multiple gunshots fired in the Contant area.

Moments later, a concerned citizen contacted police to report that a male was lying in the roadway bleeding from his upper body. Patrol units responded to the scene and discovered the victim, who had sustained several gunshot wounds. Emergency Medical Technicians arrived shortly thereafter and determined that the man had no vital signs.

Authorities have not yet released the victim's name, pending notification of next of kin.

The case is being handled as a homicide investigation under the VIPD's Major Crimes Unit, and no suspect information has been released at this time.

Police are urging anyone with information about the shooting to contact the Virgin Islands Police Department at (340) 774-2211 or reach the Major Crimes Unit directly at (340) 642-8449 via WhatsApp. Information can also be shared anonymously through Crime Stoppers USVI at 1 (800) 222-8477 or by calling 911.

Thursday's killing marks the 14th homicide on St. Thomas this year. So far in 2025, the Virgin Islands has recorded a total of 28 homicides, including 12 on St. Croix and two on St. John.

© Viconsortium 2026