

logo not found or type unknown

Police Investigating Death of 59-Year-Old Woman Found Unresponsive in South Grapetree Home

Police are investigating the death of 59-year-old Eva Ramon, who was found unresponsive inside a South Grapetree residence Friday evening after a 911 call reported the discovery. EMTs determined she showed no signs of life when officers arrived.

Crime / Published On November 15, 2025 08:22 PM /

Staff Consortium November 15, 2025

Image not found or type unknown

A road sign marks South Grapetree Bay on St. Croix, where police responded Friday evening after a woman was found unresponsive inside a residence. By. V.I. CONSORTIUM.

ST. CROIX — The V.I. Police Department has launched an investigation after a woman was found unresponsive inside a residence in the South Grapetree area of Christiansted on Friday evening.

According to police, the 911 Emergency Call Center received a report at approximately 6:25 p.m. on November 14, 2025, from a citizen who said an unresponsive female had been discovered inside a home. Officers were immediately dispatched to the location, accompanied by Emergency Medical Technicians.

EMTs assessed the woman upon arrival and determined that she showed no signs of life.

The deceased has been identified by next of kin as 59-year-old Eva Ramon. The VIPD says the case remains under active investigation.

Authorities are urging anyone with information to contact 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau at 340-778-2211, or Crime Stoppers VI at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS).

© Viconsortium 2025