ST. JOHN — An unidentified man was recovered from Coral Bay Harbor without vital signs Sunday morning after a citizen reported seeing a body floating in the water, according to the V.I. Police Department.

VIPD was notified of the discovery at approximately 10:26 a.m. on July 12.

Responding officers met with a citizen who said they had been in the Coral Bay Harbor area when they noticed the body in the water.

Emergency responders searched the area and located an unidentified Caucasian man floating face down.

Members of St. John Rescue removed the man from the water. He had no vital signs.

The investigation remains ongoing as authorities work to identify the deceased and determine the circumstances surrounding his death.
