

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Concerts, J'Ouvert and Mas Bands Set for Virginia Beach International Carnival

The four-day event will run July 16–19 along the Virginia Beach Boardwalk, with two concerts, a welcome party, J'ouvert on the Sand, breakfast brunch, afterparties and mas bands from North Carolina, Georgia, Connecticut, Maryland and Virginia in 2026.

Carnival / Published On July 16, 2026 11:32 PM /

Staff Consortium July 16, 2026

Virginia Beach International Carnival 2024.

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. — The Virginia Beach International Carnival will return July 16–19, 2026, with four days of Caribbean cultural events along the Virginia Beach Boardwalk, including two concerts, J'ouvert on the Sand, mas bands, parties and a brunch event.

Mas bands from North Carolina, Georgia, Connecticut, Maryland and Virginia are expected to participate in the carnival.

The scheduled activities begin with a welcome party and include two concerts featuring Caribbean performers, the beachside J'ouvert on the Sand, a Breakfast Brunch and afterparties.

Organizers are continuing to release the entertainment lineup. Artists announced in connection with the event include Kerwin Dubuois, Lyrikal, Rae and Freetown Collective, with additional performers expected to be named.

The event is intended to bring a Caribbean Carnival experience to the Mid-Atlantic and reach Caribbean communities and festival audiences within the United States.

Tickets are currently available through the carnival's website at vbintl carnival.com.

Anyone seeking additional information may contact the Virginia Beach International Carnival team at vbintl carnival@gmail.com or 757-346-9321.

The organization lists its mailing address as 4831 Columbus Street, Suite 2175, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23466.