

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Man Critically Wounded, Woman Grazed in Broad-Daylight Shooting at St. Croix Gas Station

A man remains in critical condition after suffering a gunshot wound to the head, while a woman sustained non-life-threatening injuries after both were shot while inside a black SUV at Moe's Service Station in Estate Glynn on Friday afternoon.

Crime / Published On July 24, 2026 07:57 PM /

Staff Consortium July 24, 2026

Police and bystanders gather near Moe's Service Station in Estate Glynn following a shooting that left a man critically injured and a woman with non-life-threatening injuries. By. V.I. CONSORTIUM.

ST. CROIX — A man is in critical condition and a woman suffered non-life-threatening injuries following a shooting Friday afternoon at Moe's Service Station in Estate Glynn, according to the V.I. Police Department.

The 911 Emergency Call Center received a report from a concerned citizen at approximately 12:45 p.m. on July 24 that a man had been shot in the head in the parking lot of the service station.

When officers arrived, they found a man and a woman inside a black SUV, both suffering from gunshot wounds. Police said the man sustained a gunshot wound to the head, while the woman was grazed by a bullet.

Both victims were transported to Juan F. Luis Hospital for treatment. Police said the man remains in critical condition, while the woman's injuries are not considered life-threatening.

The shooting remains under investigation.

Anyone with information about the incident is urged to call 911, the VIPD Criminal Investigation Bureau at 340-778-2211, or Crime Stoppers V.I. anonymously at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).