

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Masked Men With Handguns Rob a Pizza Hut in St. Thomas of Undisclosed Amount of Cash

Crime / Published On April 26, 2020 06:35 AM /

Staff Consortium April 26, 2020

ST. THOMAS - Two masked men on Friday robbed the Pizza Hut restaurant in the Fort Mylner Shopping Center of an undisclosed amount of cash, V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Toby Derima has announced.

According to Mr. Derima, at about 10:45 p.m. Friday, the 911 Emergency Call Center dispatched officers to the Pizza Hut regarding a robbery in progress.

Officers responded to the restaurant, where they subsequently interviewed employees who stated that two black males dressed in dark clothing entered the establishment with handguns and demanded money. An unknown amount of cash was taken, and the suspects fled the store in an unknown direction, according to the police report.

The incident as of Friday was under investigation. The VIPD is requesting the community's assistance in finding those responsible. If you have information on this robbery, please call 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau at (340) 774-2211, or Crime Stoppers USVI at (800) 222-TIPS.

© Viconsortium 2026