As part of its efforts to prepare for a possible Run-Off Election between the Mapp-Potter and Christensen-Ottley gubernatorial teams, the Virgin Islands Elections System is reopening voter registration.

Supervisor Caroline Fawkes announced that registration will be open through Wednesday, Nov. 12, as the Run-Off Election could take place on November 18. Voters who register during this period are eligible to vote in the Run-Off.

Items required for voter registration, include:

- Birth Certificate or
- Passport (United States) or
- Military Discharge form (DD214) or
- Naturalization Certificate

Original documents must be presented, as photocopied documents will not be accepted.

Registration will resume again on November 23.
