

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Significant Voter Turn Out At The Polls

VIC News / Published On November 19, 2014 12:40 AM /

Cynthia Graham November 19, 2014

As of 3 p.m. Tuesday, elections reports showed that 9,006 (36.65 percent of total registered voters) had already voted in the St. Croix District and 7,875 (30.99 percent of total registered voters) had cast ballots in the St. Thomas-St. John District. Elections Supervisor Caroline Fawkes made the announcement today.

This is an early total of 67.64 percent of voters between the two districts,

Additional 2014 Election information can be found by visiting the Virgin Islands Elections System website here.

