The Mapp-Potter Inaugural Committee will be providing free transportation to the Ecumenical Service today at Miracle Revival Deliverance Tabernacle, located at 22a Beeston Hill, the new administration has announced.

According to the press release, from the Frederiksted area, there will be a bus leaving the east parking lot of the Sunshine Mall at 8 am, January 6th, 2015 with stops at the La Reine Bus Transfer Station and at the parking lot opposite the Innovative Building in Sunny Isles. Those seeking shuttle service should look for the Mapp/Potter sign on the bus.

From the Christiansted area, there will be a bus leaving from the Golden Rock Shopping Center at 8 am, January 6th, 2015.

When the Ecumenical Service is over, buses will transport attendees back to the pick up points.

The Ecumenical Service commences at 9 a.m.
