

The Virgin Islands Consortium

VIPD Announces Parking Restrictions For St. Patrick's Day Parade

Entertainment / Published On March 11, 2015 11:04 AM /

Ernice Gilbert March 11, 2015

The 2015 St. Patrick's Day parade marks the 46th year the event is being celebrated in St. Croix's Christiansted town and the Virgin Islands Police Department has announced parking restrictions for the March 14 event.

- No parking on King Street or Company Street from Market Street to the wharf area
- No parking on Church Street, between King and Company Streets
- No parking on Market Street, between King and Company Streets
- No parking on Hospital Street, between King and Company Streets

Police further advises that any vehicle found parked in the restricted areas will be ticketed and/or towed at the owner's expense.

The event starts at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

Feature Image Credit: Ashwisco Photography

© Viconsortium 2026