St. Thomas -- Adani Queeley was arrested on April 3 and charged with aggravated assault and battery after he allegedly punched and kicked his ex-girlfriend, VIPD Public Information Officer Kevin Jackson announced on Friday.

According to Jackson, Queeley, 23, of Grand View, was arrested in connection with an incident that occurred on March 26, when Queeley attacked his ex-girl who is also the mother of his child.

The victim stated that while at Lindbergh Bay beach with her friends, Queeley suddenly appeared, walked up to her and punched her in the face with his fist. Queeley then kicked the victim, causing her to 'black-out', took their minor daughter and fled the beach.

Police contacted Queeley on April 1, and after an interview, the perpetrator was placed under arrest without bail, in accordance with Virgin Islands domestic violence laws.
