ST. CROIX -- The St. Croix office of the Division of Banking and Insurance will host the insurance licensing exams on Tuesday, April 14 at 10:00 a.m. at the division's office, located within the Lieutenant Governor's Office on the third floor of 1131 King Street, Christiansted.

According to Cavel Paul, insurance and licensing examiner at the division, the test will be for agents seeking to work for local insurance agencies. Paul said the territory has no insurance companies; only agencies that are affiliated with companies outside the Virgin Islands.

Registration for the exam will be open until 3:00 p.m. on Monday, April 13, as well acceptance of an examination fee payment of $50.
