ST. CROIX – The St. Croix Educational Complex Music Department will host its annual concert and music award program tomorrow May 7 starting at 7 p.m. in the school's auditorium.

Along with the Educational Complex top musicians, the concert will feature world-class jazz musician and teacher David Robinson, according to Kevre Hendricks, the Educational Complex music department chairman.

A minimal fee of $5.00 will be collected to help with the school's fundraising effort to purchase new musical instruments.

Robinson is also scheduled to conduct a workshop on traditional jazz (New Orleans-based styles) for about 70 students from several schools on St. Croix on today May 6, 2015 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Educational Complex.

For more information on the Educational Complex concert/music award program, and jazz workshop, please contact Hendricks at 778-2036.
