ST. THOMAS -- An Estate Constant man who police say broke and entered into the sanctuary of a Jehovah Witness church, was arrested and charged with third degree burglary, according to a press release issued by VIPD Public Information Office Kevin Jackson.

Clifton King, 28, was arrested on May 18 at about 5:10 p.m. after he was positively identified by a church member on surveillance video breaking and entering, and removing items from the church, located in Lower John Dunkoe.

Unable to post bail set at $70,000, King was remanded to the Bureau of Corrections pending his advise-of-rights hearing.
