ST. THOMAS — The federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) has stepped up an aggressive push for information regarding gun-related crimes in the territory.

A $5,000 reward has been offered by the ATF for information that leads to the arrest of Nijohntea Walker, a 19-year-old male who is wanted on federal firearms charges.

Walker is considered armed and dangerous. He is described as having black hair, brown eyes and frequents the Jah Yard and around Hospital Ground on St. Thomas.

Tipsters can remain anonymous. To report information call or text the ATF directly at 202-702-7219. The ATF can be found online at www.ATF.gov; on Twitter at @ATFMiami; Instagram at

@ATFHQ; and Facebook at facebook.com/HQATF
