ST. CROIX– In an effort to aid in relief efforts on the island of Dominica in the wake of the deadly Tropical Storm Erika, St. Croix Rescue deployed three of its members to the Commonwealth on Sept. 6, according to a press release issued by the organization Sunday night.

Deployed members include Team Leader Assistant Chief Modestus John-Baptiste, Lt. Eugene Phipps and Cmdr. David Goodrich.

The team responded to a request from Deputy Chief Fire Officer Farley J. Riviere Acting Chief, Dominica Fire & Ambulance Service. St. Croix Rescue members will be working with the Fire Service while in the country.
