ST. CROIX -- The Department of Licensing and Consumer Affairs, Dept. of Labor and the Office of Sen. Nereida "Nelly" Rivera-O'Reilly, will host a town hall meeting today at 5:30 p.m. through 7:30 p.m. at the UVI Great Hall on the Albert A. Sheen Campus, where a myriad of topics, including the price of gas and food on this island, will be discussed.

The town hall will see the aforementioned government agencies making known to the public ongoing initiatives. It will also serve as a forum through which residents can "air concerns or have questions answered regarding matters within the purview of the respective government agencies," according to a press release Sen. Rivera-O'Reilly's office issued late Wednesday.

According to the release, DLCA will have staff present to address any questions or concerns that the public may have, and encourages and welcomes all interested individuals to attend.

The department plans to conduct a series of these public meetings through which informative exchanges can be had between it and the public.

For those unable to attend today's town hall but would love to participate, questions can be submitted through the following email address: teamnellie@gmail.com or here.

For more information, contact the DLCA at the following numbers: 713.3522 on St. Croix and 714.3522 on St. Thomas/St. John, or the Office of Senator O'Reilly at 712.2222.
