

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Police Need Assistance In Finding Man Who Went Missing In St. Thomas

Community Center / Published On November 06, 2015 12:16 AM /

Ernice Gilbert November 06, 2015

ST. THOMAS -- Policemen here are requesting the community's help in locating a man who went missing yesterday, VIPD Media Specialist Sakeeda Freeman revealed via press release today.

According to the release, Brian Adamitz, 35, (full image here) was last seen on Wednesday, November 4 by his roommate leaving his house in Pillsbury Heights on foot, traveling to work at Secret Harbor. He was wearing a black t-shirt with a Virgin Islands flag emblem, gray shorts, and carrying a black backpack.

Mr. Adamitz, a Caucasian male, is 6'4" tall and weighs 190lbs. He has brown, short hair, and brown eyes.

If anyone has any information on his location, contact 911, 340-776-9110 or Crime Stoppers USVI at 800-222-8477 911, 340-776-9110 or Crime Stoppers USVI at 800-222-8477 911, 340-776-9110 or Crime Stoppers USVI at 800-222-8477.

Correction: November 5, 2015

A previous version of this story misspelled Brian Adamitz's name as "Brain", and listed the wrong month that he went missing. It was November 4, not October 5. Both errors came in the VIPD's press release. The story has been updated to reflect the correct information.

© Viconsortium 2026