

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Elderly St. Thomas Man Reported Missing, Police Seeking Community's Assistance

Crime / Published On May 29, 2020 05:21 PM /

Staff Consortium May 29, 2020

Stanfield "Stan" Dumas By. VIPD

ST. THOMAS — On May 16 at approximately 5:53 p.m., 70-year-old Stanfield "Stan" Dumas was reported missing by family members, according to V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Toby Derima.

Dumas is a Black male, standing around 5 feet 10 inches in height.

He was last seen around 7:31 a.m. on May 16 leaving his residence in Estate Fortuna, wearing gray pants and a green t-shirt, according to police. Family members reported that Dumas went line fishing alone in Bordeaux Bay and never returned home.

The VIPD is asking anyone who may have information regarding this missing person to call 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau at (340) 774-2211 extension 5569 or Crime Stoppers USVI at (800) 222-TIPS.

© Viconsortium 2026