

The Virgin Islands Consortium

St. Croix Woman Raped At Frederiksted Bus Stop

VIC News / Published On January 19, 2016 09:54 AM /

Staff January 19, 2016

ST. CROIX -- A woman who told police that she was raped at a bus stop in Frederiksted, received medical attention at the Juan F. Luis Hospital following the incident, according to a press release issued late Monday by Sakeeda Freeman, the VIPD's media specialist.

Ms. Freeman said at about 11:36 a.m. on Saturday, January 16, officers received notification of a rape victim seeking treatment at JFL.

Officers then met with the victim, a 36-year-old female, who stated that on the morning of January 15, at roughly 9:00 a.m., she was sitting at the bus stop adjacent to Amigo's Gas Station, when a vagrant/homeless man approached her. According to the victim, the man then assaulted her, pinned her down and raped her at the bus stop.

The victim said she was familiar with the man that attacked her and provided police with a description and information in regards to where he can be located.

Police continue to investigate the incident, according to Ms. Freeman.

Correction: January 19, 2016

Amigo's Gas Station is located in Frederiksted, not Christiansted as a previous version of this article stated. The correction has been made.

© Viconsortium 2026