

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Unsolved Crimes: David Francois Of St. Croix Shot Dead In Frederiksted; PR Man Succumbs To Gunshot Wounds In St. Thomas

Community Center / Published On February 29, 2016 12:39 PM /

Staff February 29, 2016

Crime Stoppers USVI has started its "Crime of the Week" initiative in an effort to keep at the forefront crimes committed that remain unsolved. On Sunday, two items were released: A man who was shot to death on St. Croix in 2013, and a Puerto Rican man found shot to death in St. Thomas earlier this year.

On St. Croix, at approximately 2:28 pm on November 18, 2013, police were dispatched to the Frederiksted beach area vicinity of Target Wall. Upon arrival, police observed an unresponsive black male lying on the sand behind a black pick up truck. The victim sustained a single gunshot wound to the head. The victim was identified as 42-year-old David Francois, who succumbed to his injury. Police are asking for your assistance in seeking any information that can assist in solving this case.

On January 28, 2016 at about 10:24 pm on St. Thomas, police were dispatched to the area of Wintberg in reference to a gunshot victim. The victim died at the scene and was identified as Carlos Lebron Lopez, 39, of Puerto Rico. Police are asking for your assistance in seeking any information that can assist in solving this case.

Contact Crime Stoppers USVI at 1800222(TIPS) 8477, or visit www.crimestoppersusvi.org, or download the free P3Tips app on your mobile device. Earn rewards up to $2,500.00 if your information leads to an arrest or recovery of property. All tips remain anonymous.

© Viconsortium 2026