Office of Highway Safety Territorial Occupant Protection Coordinator, Leslie Dickenson, reminds residents of the national seat belt safety initiative dubbed Click It Or Ticket, that is held the second week of May every year. It's simple, she says: wear your seat belt of face fines between $75 to $500. Ms. Dickenson said on Wednesday that police are currently on heightened alert for those who choose to endanger themselves and the lives of others by not wearing seat belts.
