

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Police Seeking Assistance In Finding Missing Man

VIC News / Published On May 27, 2016 04:48 PM /

Staff May 27, 2016

ST. THOMAS -- The V.I.P.D. is seeking the community's assistance in locating a missing 68-year-old man residing on this island, who was last seen at the Cyril E. King Airport in April. The exact date was not given.

According to a V.I.P.D. release issued today, the missing man, named Warren Thomas, told his brother that he was headed to Africa to visit a family member last month, but the family member never saw Mr. Thomas. Police did not say whether Mr. Thomas had traveled out of St. Thomas.

Mr. Thomas is an African American height five feet, eight inches, and weighs 150lbs. He has grey, short hair, brown eyes, and is a resident of Estate Thomas.

Correction: May 27, 2016

Because of erroneous information provided by the V.I.P.D., a previous version of this story included the wrong first name of the missing victim. The story has been updated to include the correction information.

© Viconsortium 2026