ST. CROIX -- Soldiers who gave the ultimate sacrifice were honored today territory-wide -- in Christiansted, St. Croix, Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas and Cruz Bay, St. John -- as dignitaries, servicemen, American Legion members and other groups marched through the various towns in honor of the fallen. Above, a wreath, placed by Governor Kenneth Mapp into the ocean at Fort Christianvaern, floats away.

Remarks were given, wreaths were laid, and even tears were shed as the territory remembered its fallen: the known and unknown who battled in wars around the world to protect liberty.

Below, some videos of the Christiansted event. Pictures are embedded in the feature image. Simply click icon to view all. Story goes live in the morning.
