ST. CROIX -- The Virgin Islands Police Department is seeking the community's assistance in locating Nathaniel Thomas Jr., above, who police say is wanted for reckless endangerment following an incident that occurred at the Gas-For-Less Service Station on May 15.

According to police, Mr. Thomas, 27, who goes by the alias "Jahreek", is a black male, weighs 130 pounds, is approximately five feet tall, has hazel eyes and brown dreadlocks.

The suspect has a tattoo that says "Respect" on the back of his left hand, and another that reads "Loyalty" on the back of his right hand. Police say Mr. Thomas is affiliated with a gang on the west side of St. Croix, and is known to frequent the Walter I.M. Hodge housing community, Frederiksted town, Campo Rico, Whim, Concordia and La Grange.

Police are asking anyone who knows of Mr. Thomas' whereabouts to call 911 or 340-778-2211, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
