

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Video: Yvette Thomas-Henry, USVI Ambassador

Videos / Published On October 10, 2016 12:17 PM /

Staff October 10, 2016

In 2015, Yvette Thomas-Henry found her way into the history books after becoming the first female African American general manager of the Four Seasons Hotel, and the first Virgin Islander to accomplish such a feat. For Ms. Thomas-Henry, her path to leadership began in junior high school in St. Croix, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Watch her USVI Ambassadors interview above.

Watch the original video